

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

More than five tons of maple sugar and syrup have already been shipped from Londonderry.

W. Randall Waterman, a teacher in St. Johnsbury academy, is ill with scarlet fever. His is the only case in town.

The rails are being taken up from the trolley line from North Craftsbury to Lake Umbagog and service will be discontinued there.

Miss Margaret Eastman, who lives seven miles from Topham, was absent from church but one Sunday all winter.

Miss Rita Miller is carrying the mail on one of the rural routes in Greensboro, John L. King having finished work last Saturday.

Mrs. George Bailey, who drives the stage from North Craftsbury to Wolcott, made the trip every day last winter, a distance of about 12 miles.

In Gassetts farmers report this is the best sugar season in years. Mr. Whipple of that town has already made 180 gallons and is not done yet.

Frank Howard of Danby, charged with the burglary of the summer camp of Rutland Hall last June, was acquitted in Rutland county court Wednesday.

The First Baptist society of Newport held their first services in the new church on Easter Sunday. The pipe organ was the gift of Mrs. Benjamin Hinman.

After wearing a plaster cast for many months Miss Blanche G. LaValley, who injured her spine in a fall while hiking in Wilmington, is expected to recover.

Rev. J. Percival Hugst, D. D., pastor of the Tompkins avenue Congregational church in Brooklyn, N. Y., will be the commencement speaker at Middlebury college.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon G. Hurlburt, who own a large farm in Lincoln, have gone to Rockingham to assume the management of the town farm, which has 11 inmates.

Rev. C. B. Atwood, a former pastor of the Baptist church in St. Johnsbury, has resigned as pastor of the Congregational church in Guilford and will retire from the ministry.

Word has been received in South Royalton of the death of Harold Spaulding of that place with meningitis at the state hospital in Providence, R. I. He was a gunpointer in the navy.

The manufacture of Hanover crackers at Smith & Son's in White River Junction has been suspended for two weeks, as the allotment of wheat flour has been used and the next is not due for some days.

Reed Lebourveau, a young White River Junction lad, fell while climbing a tree a few days ago and landed on a broken bottle, which cut one hip open, so that a number of stitches had to be taken to close the wound.

Miss Alice Baird and Miss Mary Will of Rutland, who recently enlisted for active Red Cross service, were guests of honor at the evening before their departure at a banquet given by their sister nurses graduated from the local hospital.

By the will of the late Mrs. Zilpha A. Axtell of Newton, N. H., the Methodist church at Pittsfield received $2,000 with the right to purchase a pipe organ. Mr. Axtell was born in Pittsfield and her husband also spent his early life there.

George Osborne, while "cutting his cord" in South Royalton, lost his watch in the woods on Hubbard mountain last Thanksgiving day. On Easter Sunday he went to the spot where he thought he lost it and found the timepiece, which, on being wound, ran on schedule time.

Asa B. Hebard of Concord, N. H., will assume his duties as manager of the manufacturing plant of Smith & Son's in White River Junction next Monday. For the last several years he has held a position with the New England Telephone & Telegraph company at Concord.

Bristol met with a real loss in the death of Solomon D. Farr, one of the business men of the town. He was born in 1845 and at the age of 15 years began as a clerk, continuing in the mercantile business until his death, since 1860 having been engaged in the hardware business with his brother, until the latter's death in 1900 and since then continuing alone. His son will succeed him in the business.

Miss Ethel Hamilton of Wayland, Mass., spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Hamilton, recently.

Earl Prescott has finished his work in Williamstown and returned home to help in sugaring.

William Martin and family of Barre have moved onto the Burgin farm on the Washington road.

Lawrence O'Mera is home from Goddard seminary to assist in sugaring.

About 40 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Colby Tuesday evening of last week. Dancing was enjoyed by the company and all had a very pleasant evening.

Miss Una Bohannon is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bohannon.

At the oyster supper held here a short time for the benefit of the Red Cross, about $25 was raised.

F. A. Burroughs was in West Topham recently on business.

H. A. Prescott was an East Barre visitor recently.

Mrs. Kate Hinton of West Topham visited her sister, Mrs. Jane Fish, recently.

Little Eva Button, who has been quite sick the past week with bronchial trouble, is able to be out again.

Mrs. E. L. Sanborn and daughter, Alice, are visiting friends in Montpelier and Waterbury.

Mrs. Avery Hodge and children of Corinth are visiting Mrs. H. G. Simpson and family.

Napoleon Once Said:

"A footstep army is an army half defeated." Men in training camps, in cantonments, in the army and navy suffer from blisters and sore spots on their feet. Sore "Comfort K" should contain one or more boxes of Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder to shake into the shoes. It freshens the tired, aching, smarting feet and heels blisters and sore spots. The Plattsburg Camp Manual advises men in training to make daily use of Foot-Ease. Sold everywhere. 25c—Adv.

BACKACHE KILLS!

Don't make the fatal mistake of neglecting what may seem to be a "simple little backache." There isn't any such thing. It may be the first warning that your kidneys are not working properly, and throwing off the poisons as they should. If this is the case, go after the cause of that backache and do it quickly, or you may find yourself in the grip of an incurable disease.

GOLD MEDAL HAARON OIL Capsules will give almost immediate relief from kidney and bladder troubles, which may be the unsuspected cause of general ill health. GOLD MEDAL HAARON OIL Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories in Holland. They are prepared in correct quantity and convenient form to take, and are positively guaranteed to give prompt relief. Your money will be refunded, get them at any drug store, but be sure to insist on the GOLD MEDAL brand, and take no other. In boxes, three sizes—Adv.
